

The Hon. Jamal N. Whitehead

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

GURSHRAN SINGH RANDHAWA,

Plaintiff,

v.

UR M. JADDOU, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:24-cv-01246-JNW

STIPULATED MOTION TO HOLD
CASE IN ABEYANCE AND [~~PROPOSED~~] ORDER

Noted for Consideration:
October 11, 2024

Plaintiff and Defendants, by and through their counsel of record, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 6 and Local Rules 7(d)(1), 10(g) and 16, hereby jointly stipulate and move to hold this case in abeyance until April 2, 2025. Plaintiff brought this litigation pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act and Mandamus Act seeking, inter alia, to compel the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (“USCIS”) adjudicate his Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal. Defendants’ response to the Complaint is currently due on October 22, 2024. The parties are currently working towards a resolution to this litigation. For good cause, the parties request that the Court hold the case in abeyance until April 2, 2025.

Courts have “broad discretion” to stay proceedings. Clinton v. Jones, 520 U.S. 681, 706 (1997). “[T]he power to stay proceedings is incidental to the power inherent in every court to

1 control the disposition of the causes on its docket with economy of time and effort for itself, for
2 counsel, and for litigants.” Landis v. N. Am. Co., 299 U.S. 248, 254 (1936); see also Fed. R. Civ.
3 P. 1.

4 With additional time, this case may be resolved without the need of further judicial
5 intervention. USCIS has scheduled Plaintiff’s asylum interview for December 3, 2024. USCIS
6 agrees to diligently work towards completing the adjudication within 120 days of the interview,
7 absent unforeseen or exceptional circumstances that would require additional time for
8 adjudication. If the adjudication is not completed within that time, USCIS will provide a status
9 report to the Court. Plaintiff will submit all supplemental documents and evidence, if any, to 10 USCIS seven to ten days prior to the interview date. Plaintiff recognizes that failure to submit
11 documents prior to the interview may require the interview to be rescheduled and the adjudication
12 delayed. If needed, Plaintiff will bring an interpreter to the interview, otherwise the interview will 13 need to be rescheduled and the adjudication delayed. After the interview, USCIS will need time
14 to adjudicate Plaintiff’s asylum application. Once the application is adjudicated, Plaintiff will 15 dismiss the case with each party to bear their own litigation costs and attorneys’ fees. Accordingly,
16 the parties request this abeyance to allow USCIS to conduct Plaintiff’s asylum interview and then 17 process his asylum application.

18 As additional time is necessary for this to occur, the parties request that the Court hold the 19 case in abeyance until April 2, 2025. The parties will submit a joint status report on or before
20 April 2, 2025.
